the photographer says...

"Rachel and Tim's wedding was such a joy to photograph. Incorporating a beautiful relaxed bride and groom and a picturesque little church within a magnificent country landscape, GEORGIE KAY'S stunning styling created the perfect CELEBRATION! Among splashes of colour and intricate detailing at every turn, it was a photographer's delight!"

SARAH WOOD, SARAH WOOD PHOTOGRAPHY

"We chose a local country theme – inspired by our family, friends and local surroundings with everyone helping to make it such a beautiful and special day. Most of the flowers were picked from surrounding farms and the red wine, with labels handwritten by my twin sister Madeline, was made at a nearby property."

the stylist says...

"Farm equipment found in surrounding paddocks and sheds were used to add personal touches to the marquee design. One of the main features were the INCREDIBLE LIGHTS, made by the groom, created with old fencing wire. The board used to display the table plan was an OLD BARN DOOR. Tim's grandmother's linen tablecloth was used to adorn the bridal table in addition to the original kangaroo chairs from the homestead."

THE CEREMONY Rachel and Tim's spring wedding, was one peppered with rustic local charm and heartfelt nostalgia. The couple exchanged vows in front of 130 family and friends during their afternoon ceremony at ST PATRICK'S CHURCH in LONGWOOD.

THE RECEPTION An amazing outdoor marquee reception followed in CREIGHTONS CREEK, where tables named after places close to the couple's hearts were lined with jars brimming with locally picked colourful garden flowers. Props gathered from around the homestead created the epitome of an eclectic country celebration – the perfect setting for this couple's special occasion.
